

Green, which com-
Tuesday last, we had vidence of the ill con-at may flow from the cipitate conduct of the re, in declaring the e judges to be vacant millions had not ex-same spirit which per-judges of the supreme rs to have extended to s in some of the coun-Hutton and Snowden, urty, who had been re-
by the last legislature, Tuesday last, to take office under their new
, alleging that their old were not yet expired;
had been already sworn the constitution, they cept an appointment, in their opinions, un-al, and they according-ed to take their seats on nder their old commis-s was opposed by the
the court, but finding mination fixed, and the ite disposed to acquiesce nion, he refused to sit One of the grand ju-acob Smith, a senator county, objected to take serve as a grand juror, that he could not consciischarge his duty, be-is it possible that the American government will continue a min-ter at the court of Napoleon, after this last act of robbery, which caps the climax of the plundering and burning system, and is in itself nothing more nor less than a declaration of war? Time will determine whether Napoleon is or is not our king. If he had made a formal declaration of war, what more could he have done to injure us, than he has now done?]

150 DOLLARS REWARD.

THE above reward will be given to any person who will apprehend and deliver to the subscriber at Xenia, in the county of Green, JACOB RENT, who was confined in the jail of the said county on a conviction of burglary, and made his escape therefrom last fall.

JAMES COLLIER,
Sheriff of Green county.

May 24, 1810.

NOTICE.

WILL be Sold on the 16th of June next, at the dwelling of Mary Tucker, in Newton township, Miami county, the personal estate of Abraham Tucker, deceased, consisting of one waggon, one mare, one cow and calf, and household furniture of different descriptions—Conditions will be made known on the day of sale. All persons indebted to the late estate, are requested to make immediate payment, and all those having demands, are requested to bring them in within the time limited by law.

MARY TUCKER, Administratrix,
ISAAC EMBREE, Sheriff,
May 16, 1810.