That the above is truly copied from the records of said court In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & the Court Seal at Bucyrus this 2nd day of June A.D. 1833 J. Rowse Clerk C.C.O.

And afterwards to wit on the same Day and year aforesaid the said Lewis Cary Executor as aforesaid made Report that under the provisions of & in pursuance of the foregoing Will he had on the 5th Day of June 1833 sold 311 acres of Land being part of Survey No 6010 To Abel Cary who was the highest and Best Bidder therefor to the sum of 32 cents per acre and the court now here having examined the Report and of opinion that said Sale in all things has been conducted agreeably to the tenor & effect of said Will and of opinion the same be confirmed

The Petition of Samual Atkinson Administrator of Joseph B. Andrews Deceased sheweth to your honors, that said Andrew in his life time being Seizer and possessor of the following Land and real Estate in fee Situate in Union County Ohio To wit 100 acres of Survey No. 4807 on Little Darby creek sold the same by his letter Bond Dated March 3^d 1831 for a valuable consideration Which bond is in words and figures of follows to wit I Joseph B Andrews do hereby bind myself here and Executors in the sum of five hundred Dollars to Make unto Silas Kent a good & sufficient Deed of General Warranty of and to a certain piece of Land to contain one hundred acres Situate and bounded as follows Beginning at the South Eastern corner of Land sold by Walter Dun to said Kent - and Land of John F Sabin bought of Dun and running North & East - 345 pds or till it shall strike the back line of my Survey No. 4807 and with that line N 84 W till a line parallel with the first named line will make the aforesaid Quantity of one hundred acres provided the said Kent shall pay or cause to be paid one Note bearing even date herewith due for the sum of seventy five dollars payable in two years from date said Kent also agrees to make and put up 345 poles of fence whenever I shall want the fence up my Land adjoining Duns this 3^d day of March 1831 It is also a part of the contract that the said signed J. B. Andrews (Seal) aforesaid Andrew is to have the privilege signed Silas Kent (Seal) of a road through the Land said Kent

That afterwards at the earnest request of said Kent said Andrew agreed to vary the contract so far as to run the first line N 62 E 200 + include in the tract sold but 80 acres instead of running it 345 feet to contain the 100 acres which would make the tract sold much shorter + rather wider than the first form agreed on, and the said Kent agreed to pay the same money for the eighty acres in the latter form as for the 100 acres in the first form that the last contract for eighty acres though not stated in writing will if completed be mutually agreeable and beneficial to all the parties. That afterwards said Andrew departed this life leaving a Widow Jane R. Andrew now Jane R. Bond wife of Alexander Bond with her own right of dower out of the said land as will be seen by paper marked A) And also leaving the following children to wit Hannah & Andrew P. Andrew and Jane & Andrew minor children & heirs under the age of twenty one years respectively and for whom he prays a guardian ad litem to be appointed for and in their behalf and whom he prays may be made Defendants to this petition and answer the same. The further states that the fee of said land has by the death of the said Joseph R.
 Andrew become vested in said heirs who hold the same as trustees for said Silas who is fully seized of the equitable interest in said land he having paid a part of the said purchase money to said Andrew in his life time and the balance to your petitioner as administrator -
